ANTONIA ROSADO, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.

Attorneys: Israel ROLDÁN

JOSE GUILLERMO RODRIGUEZ, et al.,
Defendants.

Marie CORTÉS CORTÉS
Juan R. GONZALEZ MUÑOZ

A SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE was convened. The parties advised the Court as to the status of the case. A settlement could not be reached. Defendants informed the Court that a motion for summary judgment was filed with the Court. The Court grants plaintiffs sixty (60) days to oppose defendants' motion for summary judgment. Trial in this case will no longer be held on March 15, 2001, therefore, the trial date is to be rescheduled.

Additionally, on February 21, 2001, defendants filed a Motion Requesting Leave to Consider Exhibits in Spanish for Purposes of Summary Judgment. (Docket No. 59). The motion is GRANTED. However, defendants are to provide translations to the documents within ten (10) days in case of an appeal.
